HOUSING RESOURCES FOR OLDER ADULTS

Housing Programs:

In Massachusetts there are 253 Housing Authorities, representing each city/town in the state. Most public housing is available to low-income families, older adults, and disabled adults. There are a small number of units available for single non-disabled adults.

Housing Navigator Mass: Affordable rental opportunities can be found through the Housing Navigator Massachusetts online tool. You can filter your search using the “rent-based on income” option. This means your rent will be limited to a percentage of your income, typically around 30%. If you're an older adult looking to live in a senior community, use the “age-restricted” filter to find suitable housing options. <https://www.housingnavigatorma.org/>

My Mass Home: Find education and counseling, down payment assistance, and affordable mortgage produce information for home ownership: <https://www.mymasshome.org/>

Town of Milton Housing Authority 617-698-2169. Owns and operates thirty-nine one-bedroom older adult/disabled housing units for low-income older adults (age 60 and over). Applications are made directly with the Town of Milton Housing Authority.
